RE: Letter of Recommendation

It is rare to find a 110% dedication from a company and their employees. This is found in Southwest Hazard Control, Inc. Their professionalism and excellence in performance is greatly appreciated by our Company.

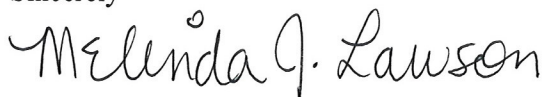

Southwest Hazard's employees display dedication, diligence and commitment to excellence in each and every project we have contracted with them. Their employees also go above and beyond meeting tight schedules when they arise, these efforts do not go unnoticed when trying to make sure a project reaches completion.

From the office to the field, every employee we work with demonstrates outstanding customer service and communication through out the entire process. We are extremely grateful that Southwest Hazard is in business!

Southwest Hazard is a valued asset to our vendor list and whether it is our Property Management or Construction Department that is in need of their services, we rest assure that our needs will be met every time!

Thank-you and I look forward to future project!

Sincerely

Melinda J. Lawson
